When Managing Volunteers do you use:

Motivation or Manipulation?

A training day to equip those who manage volunteers in churches and Christian community projects

Date: Wednesday19th September, 2012.
Time: 9.45am – 3.30pm - starting promptly at 10am
Venue: Quaker Meeting House, 10 St James Street, Sheffield, S1 2EW
Cost: £25 per person including lunch

Book and Pay online: : www.livability.eventbrite.co.uk

livability Community Mission

Our facilitators: Livability's Community Mission Team have a wide range of professional experience in managing volunteers in the public and voluntary sector and churches. They are dedicated to providing enjoyable training to improve the impact of your church and community work.

The day will be interactive and practical and will focus on:

- Understanding why people volunteer for Christian projects
- Why the best projects are full of volunteers
- Top tips on how to motivate others
- The art of communication: how to deal with tricky issues when Christians are supposed to be 'nice'.

Be prepared to join in and share your experiences.
Lunch and drinks included.

More information: Contact David Arscott on 0113 350 8070 and 07786 397275 or visit: www.livability.org.uk/church

About Livability's Community Mission team

Livability is the largest Christian disability charity in England that gives disabled and disadvantaged people real choice about how they live their lives. Their Community Mission team supports churches and Christian projects to make their communities a better place to live.

Travel directions:
By Train: From Sheffield Midland Station, take the Supertram to the Cathedral stop. St James St. is off Western side of Cathedral courtyard.
By Car: City Centre car parks are often full. Reliable parking is at Meadowhall (M1 J34) or Parkway Park & Ride (off Sheffield Parkway A57, just to the East of the City Centre). These are both served by the Supertram, as above.